ABOUT THIS HOME

Welcome to 236 White Azalea Way in the desirable Alder Creek community! This beautiful, move-in-ready 3-bedroom, 2.5-bath two-story home is one of only three remaining opportunities in this collection built by McKee Homes. The thoughtfully designed Finley Craftsman floor plan offers an exceptional blend of comfort, style, and functionality, with spacious open-concept living designed for both everyday enjoyment and entertaining. A welcoming front porch leads into the inviting foyer, which opens to a well-appointed eat-in kitchen featuring a large center island and convenient pantry. The kitchen flows seamlessly into the breakfast area and spacious family room, highlighted by a cozy electric fireplace and easy access to the covered rear deck. The main level also features a flexible office/flex space and separate dining area, providing versatile spaces to suit a variety of needs. A convenient mudroom connects to the two-car garage, while a half bath completes the main living area. Upstairs you will find the owner's suite offering a private retreat with a dual-sink vanity.
