ABOUT THIS HOME

Welcome to the Turlington floor plan, bringing effortless, multi-level coastal living to Leland's sought-after Coastal Haven community. This spacious layout makes an unforgettable first impression, welcoming you with soaring cathedral ceilings and a sleek linear fireplace that creates a warm, modern focal point in the main living space. The open-concept design is flooded with natural light, making the entire main floor feel incredibly bright, airy, and inviting. Perfect for those prioritizing long-term comfort and accessibility, the main level features a private, spacious primary suite. Adding exceptional functionality for busy households, this home is uniquely designed with dual laundry capabilities on both floors to make daily routines completely seamless. Upstairs, a massive open loft offers endless possibilities, easily transforming into a secondary living space, media room, playroom, or a quiet home office tucked away from the main floor. The secondary bedrooms on the upper level are generously sized and all feature their own walk-in closets, providing ultimate storage flexibility for family or
